

65. Termination

On a production, the Key Grip shall be responsible for the supervision of the entire grip crew and the direction of its activities. The right to employ and terminate employees shall remain solely with the Producer and with the Unit Production Manager as the Producer's representative.