

70. Reporting of Accidents

The nature and place of hospitalization of all accident cases requiring hospitalization shall be reported to the Union as soon as practicable after the accident. An employee who is injured while at work hereunder shall be credited with not less than a minimum call on the day of such injury.