

92. Knife-Throwing; Shooting of Arrows

In the production of motion pictures, an employee will not be required to free-throw knives or arrows at people. However, if an employee has the necessary skill and agrees to perform such free-throwing of knives or free-throwing or shooting of arrows at people, the compensation for such work shall be subject to individual negotiation with such person.