

12. Interchange of Job Classifications

(a) Any employee may be required to perform work in any job classification listed in the wage scale (Paragraph 1).

(b) For work time in a classification higher than employee's current classification, the provisions of Paragraph 13 shall apply.

(c) Work time in either a higher or a lower classification shall be credited to fulfill the minimum call of the current classification.