

114. Adlux or Transparent Screens and Backings

The making, maintenance or repair of Adlux and/or Translite Backings, including any apparatus attached thereto.

The backings and framework and all fixtures attached for the purpose of hanging or placing the backing in place belong to the Grip Department; to put it together and strike same and to transport from place of storage and return.