Re: Coverage Under the Agreement

Dear Alex:

During the 2018 negotiations, the parties discussed whether an individual hired under this Agreement by a Producer in Los Angeles County to perform services elsewhere within the United States - for example, in Atlanta - who remains in Atlanta following completion of his/her assignment on that production and then immediately accepts employment with the same or another Producer on a second project in Atlanta will be covered under the Agreement on the second project.

The parties agree that the mere fact that the individual in question was not furnished transportation from Los Angeles to Atlanta by the second production shall not disqualify the individual from coverage under the Agreement, provided that the second production furnishes the individual transportation to Los Angeles at the conclusion of the second production.
